ELIGIBILITY

The bursary is open to St. Paul's youths and young people involved in the St. Paul's music programs, who show promise in music and are pursuing musical studies.

RECIPIENTS

- ◆ Alana Esty, 2010
- ◆ Karl Zhang, 2011
- ◆ Matthew Waterman, 2012
- ◆ Wenxi Zhao, 2013
- ◆ David Zhang, 2019

APPLYING

An application can be made by:

- ◆ Completing an application form, available from the office or online - www.stpl.ca/forms.htm
- ◆ Submitting a written statement of not more than 300 words in support of the application, clearly indicating why the applicant should be awarded the bursary;
- ◆ The application form and statement should be submitted in a sealed envelope, clearly marked "Music Scholarship", and delivered to the church office on or before the annual deadline of August 31.

IN MEMORIAM

The St. Paul's Memorial Music Scholarship is made possible through gifts in memory of loved ones. New memorial gifts are welcome and inquiries should be directed to the Church Wardens.

Gifts have been given in memory of:

- ◆ Andrew Parris, (3 November 1933 - 28 March 2008), beloved husband of Margaret, and father of Alan and Catherine. Andrew was a member of St. Paul's Church, Chairman of St. Paul's Centre Board of Directors and an enthusiastic supporter of the young people of St. Paul's. The memorial music scholarship was launched in his memory.
- ◆ Patrick Keogh, (11 August 1975 - 26 February 2002), beloved son of Vera Keogh.
- ◆ Roger Lillie, beloved husband of Cecile, beloved. Roger was a dedicated leader in St. Paul's, the founder of Maytime Melodies, and an encourager of our music programs and young musicians.
- ◆ Patrick Keogh, (11 August 1975 - 26 February 2002), beloved son of Vera Keogh.
- ◆ Mama Olive

*May their souls,
and the souls of all the departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace.*
